

REVGROUP QUESTIONS

Week of July 3rd, 2011

Practical Atheist: I Believe in God, but I Trust in Money

To use this sheet, simply select one or two questions from each category below you think will help your group discussion. Alternatively, you can use these questions and Scriptures in your own personal devotions during the week.

START

- What does it mean to you to be truly happy?
- What is the one thing you would describe as your most valuable possession? Why is it so valuable to you?
- Why do most people want more money than they already have?

SCRIPTURE

Read Luke 12:34.

SHARE

- What are some of the “treasures” or possessions in your life currently distracting you from focusing on God? What specific things can you do to remove these distractions?
- Read Luke 16:13
- Practical atheists tend to trust money to provide happiness and/or security. Has there been a time in your life where you trusted money to provide these things? If so, how has it affected your relationship with God?
- Has there been a time in your life when you decided to put your trust in God rather than in money. If so, what did that experience teach you about God?
- Read 1 Timothy 6:17-19
- When you grow in your relationship with Christ, it often results in becoming unexplainably content with what we have. Are you more content today than you were last year? How has your relationship with Christ in the last year affected your level of contentment?
- Read 2 Corinthians 8:2-3
- Jesus said it is more blessed to give than to receive. Describe a time you gave sacrificially and the affect it had on you. Is there any way you could give even more sacrificially? If so, what would it be?

THE 1 THING

Our new series MADE starts this Sunday, July 10th. How can you get creative and invite people? Be sure to encourage your REV GROUP to use their invite cards to bring friends, family, co-workers and neighbors!

REVGROUP QUESTIONS

Week of July 3rd, 2011

Practical Atheist: I Believe in God, but I Trust in Money

To use this sheet, simply select one or two questions from each category below you think will help your group discussion. Alternatively, you can use these questions and Scriptures in your own personal devotions during the week.

START

- What does it mean to you to be truly happy?
- What is the one thing you would describe as your most valuable possession? Why is it so valuable to you?
- Why do most people want more money than they already have?

SCRIPTURE

Read Luke 12:34.

SHARE

- What are some of the “treasures” or possessions in your life currently distracting you from focusing on God? What specific things can you do to remove these distractions?
- Read Luke 16:13
- Practical atheists tend to trust money to provide happiness and/or security. Has there been a time in your life where you trusted money to provide these things? If so, how has it affected your relationship with God?
- Has there been a time in your life when you decided to put your trust in God rather than in money. If so, what did that experience teach you about God?
- Read 1 Timothy 6:17-19
- When you grow in your relationship with Christ, it often results in becoming unexplainably content with what we have. Are you more content today than you were last year? How has your relationship with Christ in the last year affected your level of contentment?
- Read 2 Corinthians 8:2-3
- Jesus said it is more blessed to give than to receive. Describe a time you gave sacrificially and the affect it had on you. Is there any way you could give even more sacrificially? If so, what would it be?

THE 1 THING

Our new series MADE starts this Sunday, July 10th. How can you get creative and invite people? Be sure to encourage your REV GROUP to use their invite cards to bring friends, family, co-workers and neighbors!